CAPITAL HONORS SOLDIER DEAD

Civil War Veterans Hold Memorial Services at Churches and Cemeteries.

Special memorial services, in commemoration of the heroism of the soldiers of the Civil War, who gave their lives to preserve the Union, were held yesterday in the churches and cemeteries of Washington.

The official memorial service of the Department of the Potomac, G. A. R., was held at Hamline M. E. Church, with Rev. J. M. M. Gray, pastor, officiating. Services were also held at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, McKendree Memorial M. E. Church and Sunshine City Temple.

At St. Joseph's the sermon was preached by Rev. John J. Clifford, of Los Angeles, who denounced the Guardians of Liberty, saying that the men who formed this organization "completely missed the spirit, lesson, and meaning of Memorial Day." The service preceding the sermon was a solemn high mass of requiem for the repose of the souls of the dead, and was conducted under auspices of Lincoln Camp No. 2, Sons of Veterans.

The mass was celebrated by Rev. Valentine Schmitt, pastor of the church, and himself a Civil War veteran. More than 200 veterans of the Union army with their wives and families attended services at McKendree Memorial Church. A large congregation also was present.

The church was decorated with American flags and flowers. The veterans present represented Burnside Post, G. A. R.; Cushing Camp, Sons of Veterans; Burnside Post, Women's Relief Corps, and the Department of the Potomac, Women's Relief Corps. Rev. L. Morgan Chambers, pastor of the church, delivered the sermon.

Sunshine City Temple was crowded to the doors, and more than 100 veterans, who fought in the Union army during the Civil War, heard an inspiring sermon by Rev. Zed H. Copp, who had as his subject "The Grand Army of the Earth."

The delegation attending services at the Temple was headed by J. D. Bloodgood, commander of the Department of the Potomac.

CURES ALL Liver, Kidney & Stomach DISEASES

PITTSBURG'S OLDEST SPECIALIST TALKS

I have practiced medicine over forty years. Twenty-five years of that time in the city of Pittsburgh. While I treat all ailments successfully, I make a specialty of so-called incurable ailments, such as Cancer, Tumors, Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Sorosis, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Jaundice, Gall Stones, Appendicitis, Eczema, Epilepsy, Tape Worms, and all other species of worms, of which there are many. I feel safe in saying that in the twenty-five years that I have been in Pittsburgh I have cured and cured more people that were given up to die and written death certificates than any man in the country. I have positively cured some of the most malignant cancers and tumors, and can show the people. I have the formulas for the cure of all these ailments, and have been asked by thousands of my patients what I was going to do with these formulas when I died. IF I CAN GET THE RIGHT PEOPLE, I will plant them where they will grow and bring forth fruit that will bring happiness to many homes when I am dead and gone. I am past seventy years of age, and want to make sure that you do not find it the best investment you ever had a chance of. I will pay your expenses.

A blanket ballot with all tickets on it will be handed you at the polls. To vote the straight instructed CHAMP CLARK ticket, make a cross mark in the square under Mr. Clark's portrait, which heads these lists of candidates on the ballots in every district. This ought to be enough to settle which is the real Champ Clark ticket, but read also the following:

"National Clark Headquarters, May 25, 1912.

"In order to secure a Clark delegation upon which we could depend, we have decided that it is now necessary for us to give our indorsement to a Clark ticket. . . .

"We now give our indorsement to and call upon the friends of Speaker Clark to support the ticket in the various districts put into the field by Dr. T. V. Hammond, Capt. John S. Miller, Robert Mattingly, and Walter Costello, and those associated with them. . . . If you vote for any other ticket, we believe that the interests of Speaker Clark will be placed in jeopardy.

"FRED T. DUBOIS,

"Manager National Clark Headquarters."

"Champ Clark Club, May 25, 1912.

"We officially indorse the above-mentioned candidates as the genuine Champ Clark instructed delegate ticket. Vote no other.

"CHAMP CLARK CLUB,

"FULTON R. GORDON, President.

"LORENZO G. WARFIELD, Secretary."

The Democratic Central Committee of the District of Columbia decided, by overwhelming vote, to give these tickets the right to use the Clark emblem—that is, the Speaker's portrait.
